

Congratulations on graduating

As a student you will have had lots of ways of serving and developing valuable social skills, e.g. through Christian Unions or student groups. After graduating you may find things tricky and miss the camaraderie and team spirit of student days.

One positive way is to join a local group of Street Pastors, where there is a team spirit as they listen, help and care in the name of Jesus.

People have found Street Pastors helpful as a way of...

- representing Jesus in public places
- bringing together Christians of all denominations
- training Christians to listen care and help
- learning to depend on God operationally in your daily life

After training, Street Pastors are asked to be on patrol once a month and patrols can be daytime, early evening or night ones.

If you would like to find out more or go out on a patrol as an observer, without obligation, please contact your local street pastor group, or email adminsotland@ascensiontrust.org.uk
